

MEXICAN REBELS TO PREPARE FOR ACTION

MADERO EVIDENTLY PLANNING COUP OF SOME DESCRIPTION.

Madero's Camp, San Andreas, near Chihuahua, Mex., April 6—Orders have been sent throughout the insurrecto ranks to be prepared for instant action.

Francisco I. Madero, the insurrecto leader, has moved his headquarters from Bucillos Hacienda, sixty miles east of Chihuahua, to this point, which is within thirty-five miles of the city.

The nature of the proposed movement is not divulged.

Abram Gonzales, the Provisional Governor of Chihuahua State, frequently holds conferences with Madero concerning the regulation of insurrecto territory.

Install Police System.

At Madera, a town of about 600 people, the insurrectos have ordered police and a helpful system under Benito Freixes, father-in-law of General Orozco. Two saw mills and two box factories are being operated at Madera by their owners under permission from the insurrectos.

All the Americans in the mines and the lumber camps in the neighborhood are receiving supplies through insurrecto courtesy.

The Mexico Northwestern Railway, running 180 miles to Madera, is under complete control of the insurrectos, who have two trains and American crews at their command.

Insurrectos Control Road. "Can we send a proviso train to Madera?" is a question frequently put to Orozco from Chihuahua City. In this way a kind of bi-party agreement is entered into between Governor Ahmuda in the city and the insurrectos in the field. The trains and railroads, however, remain in control of the insurrectos.

Senor Madero says he proposes to let the insurrecto civil government until it reaches Mexico City.

President Gomez accepted the resignation of P. Machado, Secretary of the Treasury, appointing in his place R. Martinez Ortiz, who held the portfolio of agriculture. The latter post was given to Emilio del Rio, Secretary of Justice, who succeeded in his former office by Jesus Barraque.

GOLSON WILL MANAGE FANS

The fans have at last managed to get a good manager for the Dothan baseball team for the coming season and this will be Mr. Bud Golson, the cotton man. Mr. Golson gave his consent this morning and this has been the missing link in the organization until this time.

There is no organization here now but the fans have been waiting on some one who was capable and who would give his consent to manage the team for 1911. A meeting will likely be called next week and after that it will be known as to what the prospects for a Dothan nine will be. As for the money, that is not worrying them, as a good sum can be gotten up by subscription, it is thought.

There are a number of good players here now and they are anxious to play, so there is nothing to do now but organize the association, take up the subscriptions and play ball.

FRANKLIN NOTES

The Franklin society met Monday, April 3. We had a very interesting mock trial, in which Miss Willie Pearl Carter sued John Wilson for two hundred cabbage plants and two rows of onions. The lawyers for the defense were Thomas Blackshear and Herbert Gay. The prosecuting attorneys were Henry Criss and James Couch. Judge O. L. Tompkins charged the jury in a very earnest manner. The verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff.

We had a called meeting on Thursday morning, and elected Foy Helms and Percy Newton for our debaters, Misses Janie Farmer and Lutrelle McLean as readers in the closing exercises of the school.

Last week we received some specimens of shell's from the University of Alabama, which are now on display in a neat case at the high school.

SHERIFF JINWRIGHT MAY BE IMPEACHED

GOSSIP REGARDS PROCEEDINGS AS PRACTICALLY CERTAIN.

GOVERNOR SILENT

Montgomery, Ala., April 6.—It was regarded as practically certain, at the capitol Thursday that Sheriff B. J. Jinwright would be submitted to impeachment proceedings for his failure to protect Aberdeen Johnson, a negro prisoner, from the mob which lynched him Sunday in Union Springs. No statement to this effect was made by Governor O'Neal or Private Secretary John D. McNeel, but there was gossip to the effect that the Governor had received sufficient evidence to justify him in bringing impeachment proceedings against Sheriff Jinwright for failure to take proper means for the protection of his prisoner.

Johnson was charged with a particularly brutal assault upon Mrs. Butts of Pike county. He was captured by Sheriff Teal, of Barbour county, and a posse after a week's chase near the Barbour and Bullock county line. The negro was carried to the Bullock county jail Sunday morning.

Mob Was Small One

A mob, said to have been small in numbers, came from Pike county to Union Springs, with the avowed purpose of lynching the negro. This small mob was in Union Springs several hours before the lynching. The governor's office was notified of the presence of the mob and a request was made for troops. It is understood that this notice did not come from the sheriff of Bullock county, nor did he make a request for troops. But acting on other information Governor O'Neal ordered out the Montgomery militia. Before the National Guardsmen could board the train, the negro was lynched, under revolting circumstances.

It was gossip at the capitol that evidence had been furnished the governor to show that proper precautions were not taken to protect the negro. This evidence is of a nature, it is understood that the governor feels justified in instituting impeachment proceedings, although he declined to discuss the subject Thursday.

Recent Impeachment

The impeachment proceedings will be brought before the Supreme Court of Alabama. The last impeachment proceedings against a sheriff in Alabama were those directed towards Sheriff Frank Cazalas, of Mobile county. He, too, was charged with dereliction of duty in that he did not protect a prisoner, who was lynched by a mob. Sheriff Cazalas was

ROBERT CHERRY.

LOST BABY?

Albany, Ga., April 6th, 1911.
Editor Dothan Eagle:

Dear Sir:—I would thank you very kindly if you would publish the following letter in your paper for two or three days:

I have a little baby boy, four months old, that belongs to Mrs. Lillian Jones, which was born on December 24th, 1910, at Thomasville, Ga. From what I can learn Mrs. Jones is now dead, and thinking that if I could locate some of Mrs. Jones' people they would be glad to get the baby. The boy has very fine features, blue eyes, pink skin and light hair, and is as perfect as any child could be. I dislike very much to part with the child, but as my wife's health is not such to allow her to take care of the little fellow, we would like to find its people or a good home for him, and probably if you will publish this letter some of Mrs. Jones' people will see it and would like to know something about the child. I do not know where Mrs. Jones is from, but from what I can learn they lived either at Dothan, Ala., or Bainbridge, Ga., and should any one feel interested in the little fellow, they can get all information desired by writing me at 122 South Jackson street, Albany, Ga.

Thanking you in advance for any kindness that you may show me in getting this matter before the public so that the little fellow may get with his people.

Yours very truly,
J. T. Sanderson.

Found guilty, impeached and derived of office.

A number of prominent citizens of Union Springs were in Montgomery Thursday night. It was understood that they were here in the interest of Sheriff Jinwright. Ernest W. Blue, a prominent attorney of Union Springs, declared that the gossip about the lynching which he had heard since he had gotten to Montgomery was not justified by the facts in the case. He declared that Sheriff Jinwright had taken precautions to protect his prisoner, but that he had been overpowered by superior numbers. Mr. Blue declared that citizens of Bullock county who were familiar with the circumstances of the lynching were standing loyally by Sheriff Jinwright.

KEEP YOUR MONEY AT HOME

Why be worried about keeping up with your insurance premiums, when you can get in a home company, one with its home office in Dothan?

In taking a policy with the Mutual Protective Association of Dothan, Ala., you are not bothered about having your policies switched from one division to another, and you don't send the money out of the county. Every dollar of the money in this company stays in the Dothan banks, owned and run by Dothan people, who will give you protection and value for your money.

Assessments $1.15 a month.

COCA COLA WINS PRELIMINARY

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 6.—Coca cola won part of its fight against the government's case today when Judge Sanford sustained in a degree, the defense's motion for peremptory instructions in its favor. He sustained the motion on the point that caffeine, which is found in coca cola syrup, was not a deleterious ingredient.

However, he overruled the motion on points relating to the misbranding feature, holding that there were questions for the jury to pass upon. Thereupon the court directed the jury to return a verdict for the defense on those points which he sustained which was done.

BRYAN WILL NOT MOVE TO MEMPHIS

TRILLIA THUNDERMAN HE CAN NOT ACCEPT INVITATION OF THE CITY

Washington, April 6.—The business of the house was interrupted for a time to permit of the presentation of a gavel to Speaker Clark. The gavel is a gift of the speakers constituents in Ralls county Missouri, and is made of oak cut from the spruce log of the dam of the first grist mill built north of the Missouri river in 1817.

The mill was built by Knock Matson in Pike county, and the old log, it was stated today had been pulled out of its place by a team of Missouri mules.

In accepting the gavel, Speaker Clark said he hoped his constituents would be as enthusiastic about him when he laid the gavel down as they seemed to be today.

THE AGONY OF A BABY UNDER A SKIN AFFLCTION

is all the more terrible because it can't tell you how it suffers. But there is relief at hand—not only relief but a permanent cure from prickly heat, rashes, hives, eczema... and all other skin afflictions as prevalent among infants during the summer months.

Judge James M. Greer, of Memphis, chairman of the committee as toastmaster, presented the Memphis idea. He was followed by Senators Lee and Taylor and Representatives Gordon of Tennessee, Representatives Simon, of Mississippi and Robinson, of Arkansas and Duke C. Bowers, of Memphis. They begged Mr. Bryan to come where "the people loved him, where he would always find friends."

Mr. Bowers said he felt sure that Memphis could easily raise $2,000,000, if that would be any inducement to have Mr. Bryan in his city.

Mr. Bryan replied that it was not a money consideration and that if he looked at it in the light, he would not be worthy of such an invitation. He said he knew he had friends in the South that would stand by him, and that was why they did not need him north. Suggesting that he should not be on one side of the country, he said his home at Lincoln is almost in the center of the country and only about two days ride to any section where he might be needed to help fight for the cause of Democracy.

He promised to visit Memphis at every opportunity.

Mexico can compliment herself on holding down the probable pension claims.

The man who will bluff a woman will take a bluff like a man from a man.

Count Zeppelin has been busy for sometime building another dirigible. We had feared that the Count had abandoned the idea and cancelled his subscription to the syndicate papers, but we are glad that he is showing the fighting blood.

Probably Governor O'Neal delayed the appointment of the Birmingham commissioners to see if the legislature would take Colonel Bowman's job away from him. Had that job gone, Bowman might have stopped in on the front porch, first floor, and helped to run the municipal affairs of the Jones Valley town.

WAS A FAILURE
The Scientific American takes great pains to explain to the public that the fiddle and banjo strings you have always bought for "cat gut" were really not, at all, but were made from a product of the silk worm.

Had we known that a good many years ago, it would have saved world's trouble and anguish. The boys took a "wild house cat," to manufacture up into cat gut strings, thinking to twist the parts "bow string" fashion, stretching tighter for the smaller strings, and slack for the bigger ones. Results were poor and unsatisfactory.

THE SHEEP BUSINESS
It is not meant to have you believe from this heading that we are going to write a stinging editorial on how to get rich in the sheep business. Nothing farther from it.

Up in Kentucky, it seems that they have a law that makes the state, or somebody, liable for sheep killed by dogs. One man attracted a good deal of attention from the neighbors in losing sheep from worthless sheep-killing dogs, and his bill amounted to $166, presented to one court. The county attorney smelt wool, and asked that the account be held up till some investigations could be made. He found that this particular sheep herder hadn't possessed a sheep since 1904.

Now the man is serving one year sentence in the pen for his oversight.

The court officials were easy if they had been paying for sheep killed by dogs, unless the bides were presented. Probably they will require that after this trial.

THEY NEEDED MEN THEN
Editor Brantley, of the Valdosta Times, is a rather serious minded man, but in referring to the extreme type old "aggravated" by Methuselah, he says "He lived long because there was no toy pistols and auto globes to kill folks when he was on earth. We compute his age by his birthday presents which the archaeologists have found bedded in the rocks near the Euphrates."

Then probably Methuselah never sat up one night with his feet in a tub of hot water, and next with them under a poker tabel in poorly ventilated room.

He probably never slept in a steam heated house and took gin-fizzes instead of fresh air.

Peruna and Swamp Root never got a testimonial from old Methuselah, and old as he was, although they might have made thousands of dollars out of such testimonials, with his picture thrown in.

Then they needed men in his time for there was much work to be done, and it took two or three hundred men to do what half a dozen modern men can do.

Had Methuselah lived in this day he never would have wanted to live so long—there would have been no demand for it.

ECO-FARMERS

A good deal has been written first and last about the American farmers going into Canada, and something was said about no negroes being wanted. Canada hastens to correct this statement and wants to assure that the negro settlers are perfectly welcome to any territory they may settle in, so long as they behave themselves. Canada is well come to any negro that it can get, for we know the Southern negro wants the South for his. He will never leave a country where the sun shines all the year, and where freezing weather only comes three or four times during the coldest winter.

At the worst, could only draw a few families from some of the northern cities, where they wouldn't be missed.

The negro farmer is a cotton farmer. You never heard of a negro doing away his time farming in a section where cotton is not raised before. Canada will never get any of the negro farm hands from the south.

This is only one way of attracting people to a section of the country that is in the hands of the land boomers.

MORE THAN ONE A DAY

One a day is a big average certainly but probably that is not high enough.

The other day a farmer from Greenville, Ala., was in Memphis. As soon as he got through the gate the bumbo-steers fought over who saw him first.

The had him going before he decided what hotel he would stop at. They took him to a room and explained to him at great length that they had special tips on a horse race. They knew which would win, but just naturally didn't have the money. They showed him where he could bet $500 and win $2,500 on a race, and that right off, in a few minutes. He fell in fine shape. It being spring, and good weather for his kind. He really didn't have the money with him, but put up $100 in cash, and gave the boys a check for the other. A telegraph instrument clicked a few times in another room, and a long-faced fellow walked in and said sure enough, the horse had won. He pretended to be one betting on the other side, and raised a row about the money. Said the bet was trumped up affair, anyway, for probably the greenville man's check wasn't any good. Swore he would never turn over the $2,500 till he saw the color of that money.

It only took a few minutes to convince the fellow that it was right that he run back home and fetch his money. He got them to wait till he took a fast train back to Alabama, and as soon as he could check out the money, he was back in Memphis. He turned it over to the dummy stake-holder, and to save his life he couldn't find any of them after they gave him the slip about the deposit. Even while the police couldn't furnish the usual clue, and he had to borrow money to go back home on

A Tactful Deacon.

A strange person, officiating in a country church in the absence of the rector, to his horror saw the gentleman who had handed the plate when returning it to him, slip a half crown off and put it into his waistcoat pocket, runs a story in the "Seventy Years of Irish Life." Immediately after the service he told the sexton to request the gentleman to come to him in the vestry room. When he came he said to him, "Sir, I never was so shocked and pained in my life. I distinctly saw you, sir, abstract a half crown from the plate and put it into your pocket."

"Of course you did," replied the man. "Here it is, I always do so. You see when I got the plate before I begin to hand it around, I always place a half crown on it in order to induce people to give more than they otherwise would, and I afterwards remove it as you saw me do."

The Guilty Party

"Who signed Magna Charter?" asked the school inspector, thunderously, says Housekeeper.

The village class sat mute. "Who signed Magna Charter?" roared the inspector again.

"P-Please, sir," wailed little Billy Smith, "it won't me."

The inspector snorted, the class was the most ignorant it had ever been his lot to examine. He strode from the room and outside met the school mistress. Angrily he narrated the last incident.

"Who d'ye say said that, sir?" quirled the school mistress.

"William Smith," snorted the inspector.

"Bill Smith," repeated the teacher. "E's the biggest liar here! Yet may take my word for it, 'e done it."

Timely Question.

A number of men gathered in the smoking car of a train from Little Rock to another point in Arkansas says the Housekeeper, were talking of the food best calculated to sustain health.

One Arkansan, a stout, florid man with short gray hair and a self-satisfied air, was holding forth in great style.

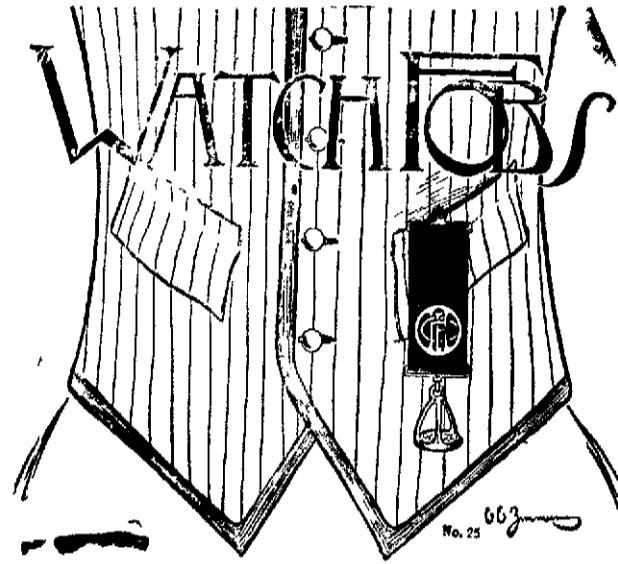

"Look at me!" he exclaimed. "Never a day's sickness in my life! And all due to simple food. Why, gents, from the time I was 20 to when I reached 40 years I lived a regular life. None of these effeminate devils for me! No late hours! Every day, summer and winter, I went to bed at 9, got up at 5, lived principally on corn beef and corn bread. Worked hard, gents, worked hard for 8 to 1, then dinner, plain dinner, then an hour's exercise, and then!"

"Excuse me," interrupted a stranger who had remained silent, "but what were you in for?"
